ORDER

On February 26, 2016, counsel for the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) filed an Unopposed Motion for Voluntary Remand (Motion) in the above-captioned case. Counsel states BLM has reviewed the October 2, 2015, decision at issue in this appeal and has concluded it should be withdrawn. Therefore, counsel requests the Board to remand the matter back to the agency for further review. Counsel also states appellant does not object to the Motion.

Based on counsel's representations, the Motion is granted. 43 C.F.R. § 4.407(c).

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to the Board of Land Appeals by the Secretary of the Interior, 43 C.F.R. § 4.1, BLM's Unopposed Motion for Voluntary Remand is granted, and the matter is set aside and remanded to the agency for further review.
