ORDER

Rescue Coordination Center (RCC) appealed from a March 28, 2016, decision of the Las Vegas Field Office, Bureau of Land Management (BLM), determining the processing fee for RCC's communications use lease application. On May 12, 2016, BLM submitted an unopposed motion to dismiss the appeal, including a copy of an e-mail from RCC informing BLM that it wishes to withdraw its appeal. Based on the representations made by the agency and RCC, we grant BLM's motion.¹

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to the Board of Land Appeals by the Secretary of the Interior,² the Board dismisses the appeal.
